Ruth 2:17-23

1. After Ruth winnows the barley she has gleaned, she returns to the city to share her provision with Naomi. What further evidence of her tender care of her mother-in-law do we see in her actions?
2. Why is Naomi so excited that Ruth gleaned in a field that belongs to Boaz?
3. Is Boaz an answer to Ruth's earlier prayer to glean in the field of someone in whose eyes she found favor? If so, what lessons does that teach us about prayer? How have you seen the Lord work through a prayer that you made recently?
4. Consider all that you've learned about God's provision in this chapter. How did God use Boaz to provide for Ruth and Naomi as a result of their faithfulness to God and each other? What does that teach us about God as our provider?
5. How has God used others to provide for your needs? How has He used you to provide for the needs of others? Share one of these examples in your small group discussion.
