Anthony Gammage, preaching
Deuteronomy 16:18-18:8

1. When Justice is Twisted (16:18-20)
2. When Justice is Difficult (17:1-13)
3. When Our Hearts Tempt Us (17:14-20)

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment and offering forgiveness. I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior. Amen.
(If you are saying this prayer for the first time today, please let one of the pastors, elders, or home group leaders know.)

WELCOME

Welcome to New Life!

We're glad you're with us this morning. Our hope is that you'll learn more about what God has done for us through Jesus. If you are a guest, feel free to text "connect" to 215-607-8444 to let us know you're listening in. You can call the church to connect with our staff at 215-641-1100 or email newlife@newlifedresher.org.

This morning, we are reminded that where there is no justice, there is poverty. Justice reminds the poor that they are not forgotten and the rich that they are answerable to a higher authority. But even in a country where justice is valued, there are those who will attempt to pervert it and turn the legal system to their own ends. Moses reminds God's people and their leaders that all will ultimately answer to God's law – both for protection and for judgement. Consider the law system of Deuteronomy.
