Revive (vs 2)

Remember (vss 3-16)

Rejoice (vss 17-19)

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment and offering forgiveness. I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior. Amen.
(If you are saying this prayer for the first time today, please contact the church and one of the pastors or elders will be in touch.)

WELCOME

Welcome to New Life!

We're glad you're with us this morning. Our hope is that you'll learn more about what God has done for us through Jesus. If you are a guest, feel free to text "connect" to 215-607-8444 to let us know you're listening in. You can call the church to connect with our staff at 215-641-1100 or email newlife@newlifedresher.org.

When we are in the middle of a struggle, fearing the worst, we want to know how it all turns out. We can lose sleep over the unknown conclusion or futilely try to control the outcome, but there must be a better way. As Habakkuk faces the loss of the nation he loves through the conquest of a nation he hates, he must find a way to come to terms with what God has told him even though he doesn't see the end clearly. Is there some assurance for him (and us) to cling to and to rest in? Listen to Habakkuk 3 as he shows us the way.
