

SERMON NOTES

“When’s it Going to End?”

Anthony Gammage, preaching

Matthew 24:1-35

May 2, 2021

Challenging Times Ahead

History Has an End

Where to Focus

Prayer of Belief: Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever before believed, but, through you, I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt, bearing my punishment and offering forgiveness. I turn from my sins and receive you as Savior. Amen.

(If you are saying this prayer for the first time today, please contact the church and one of the pastors or elders will be in touch.)

WELCOME

Welcome to New Life!

We're glad you're with us this morning. Our hope is that you'll learn more about what God has done for us through Jesus. If you are a guest, feel free to text "connect" to 215-607-8444 to let us know you're with us this morning. You can call the church to connect with our staff at 215-641-1100 or email newlife@newlifedresher.org.

There is always an end in this world, both for the best of times and for the worst of times. Our rush-rush world often distracts us from this, but there will be an end to the broken world we live in, and more personally, to our own existence should the Lord not return before our deaths. The Bible doesn't hide this reality. Jesus talks openly about the end with his disciples. As believers, the unknown could be painful, but there is also a sure hope in God's grace through Christ. How do we put it all in perspective? What does Jesus want us to know?

OUTREACH FOCUS— NATIONAL FOSTER CARE MONTH

- Pray for children in our community that are in Foster Care.
- Pray that the Lord would lead them as they work through hurt they have experienced in their past and in their present.
- Pray that they would experience a sense of belonging in a foster family, in a church community or a group of friends within our community.
- Pray that they would know they are loved by God and open their hearts to a relationship with him.
